Dear Sir/Madam,

Subject: Invitation for the JDV – Jeevika Asian Documentary Film Festival 2009, Pune

Jnana-Deepa Vidyapeeth (JDV) as you might know, is a national centre for ecclesiastical training, with some representation of international students as well. Centre for Civil Society (CCS) is a non-profit organization devoted to improving the quality of life of all citizens of India by reviving civil society and Jeevika is their documentary film festival on livelihood issues. It is the first of its kind in India and has been organized in Delhi since 2003!

This year, in addition to Delhi, JDV in collaboration with CCS is organizing the film festival in Pune also. It will be held on 20,21 November, 2009. We, the staff and students of JDV take pleasure in inviting you and all those interested in the livelihood issues of the poor and the marginalized to participate in the same.

Event:	JDV – Jeevika Livelihood Film Festival 2009
Place:	Papal Seminary Hall, Ramwadi, Pune – 411 014
Date:	20 November, '09	21 November, '09
Time:	6:00-10:30 pm	10:00am-8:00pm

All are welcome! Entry Free!

Yours truly,

PS: For further information contact Br Roby Kizhakumkara – Ph: 99219 47830
Br David – Ph: 90215 34105

List of Documentaries:

Tales of the Night Fairies	Amma
Hearts Suspended	Tree of a Life
Disposable	Aamchi Kasauti
All the World's a Stage	Goddesses
The Female Nude	Our Family

After every movie there will be a 15-20 minute discussion. We expect an audience of anywhere between 1000 and 3000 on an aggregate. We have extended the invitation to most of the colleges, schools and religious institutions in Pune, including three universities, Film and Television Institute of India (FTII). There will be simultaneous screening of movies in two halls. The Chief Guest for the inauguration on 20.11.09 is Mr Babu Pathare MLA of Vadgaonsheri constituency and Mr John Paul, former Corporator will be the Special Guest, Fr Jose Thayil, the Acting President of JDV will preside over the function.